THE [Numb. 910.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, October 14, 1762.

NEW-YORK, October 4.

On Tueſday laſt arrived here the Ship PRINCE GEORGE, Captain GREENWAY, in 7 Weeks from BRISTOL, by whom we have ſeveral later Engliſh Prints than were brought by the laſt Packet, particularly a Briſtol Paper of the 7th of Auguſt, from which we have the following very remarkable and important Particulars, viz.

HAGUE, July 29.

LAST Monday the States received by an Expreſs from their Miniſter at Berlin, the important News of a great Revolution that has happened in Ruſſia; no leſs than that the Emperor Peter III. is Dethroned; the Empreſs his Spouſe Declared Reigning Empreſs; and the Miniſtry of the preceding Reign entirely changed.

Yeſterday this News was confirmed by an Expreſs, which Mr. Groſs, the Ruſſian Miniſter, received from his Court, and which has brought him the two following Pieces:

MANIFESTO of the Empreſs CATHERINE II. on her Advancement to the Throne of Ruſſia.

" BY the Grace of God, we Catherine II. Empreſs " and Autocratrice of all the Ruſſias, &c.

" All the true Sons of Ruſſia have clearly ſeen the great " Danger to which all the Ruſſian Empire has been in Effect " expoſed.

" I. The Foundations of our orthodox Greek Religion " have been ſhaken, and it's Traditions expoſed to a total " Ruin; inſomuch that it was abſolutely feared that the " Faith, at all Times eſtabliſhed in Ruſſia, would be entirely changed, and a foreign Religion introduced.

" In the ſecond Place, the Glory of Ruſſia, acquired with " ſo much Effuſion of Blood, and riſen to the higheſt Pitch " by it's victorious Arms, has already been trampled under " Foot, by the Peace lately concluded with it's greateſt " Enemy.

" And at length, the interior Arrangements, which ſerve " as a Baſis to the Welfare of the Country, have been to" tally overthrown.

" Wherefore, being ſenſibly affected and overcome with " the imminent Dangers wherewith our faithful Subjects " were threatened, and knowing their manifeſt and ſincere " Deſires in this Reſpect, We, repoſing on the Almighty, " and the Divine Juſtice, have mounted the Sovereign Im" perial Throne of all the Ruſſias, and have received the " ſolemn Oath from all our faithful Subjects.

" Done at Peterſburgh the 28th of June, O. S. 1762.

This Publication made, the Empreſs remitted to the foreign Miniſters the following Note for their Information; but we know not whether the Pruſſian Miniſter was of the Number.

NOTE for the foreign MINISTERS.

" HER Majeſty the Empreſs having this Day mounted " the Imperial Throne of all the Ruſſias, to anſwer " the unanimous Deſires, and preſſing Prayers, of all her " faithful Subjects, and true Patriots of this Empire, has " ordered Notice to be given thereof to all the foreign Mi" niſters reſiding at her Court, and to aſſure them, that her " Imperial Majeſty's invariable Intention is to maintain a " good Friendſhip with the Sovereigns their Maſters.

" The ſaid foreign Miniſters will be immediately informed " of the Day on which they may have the Honour to make " their Court, and preſent their Compliments of Felicitation " to her Imperial Majeſty.

" Done at Peterſburgh, the 28th of June, 1762.

This ſurprizing Revolution furniſhes Matter for all Kinds of Conjectures. What merits a particular Attention, is the Grief, which, in the Manifeſto, is laid to the Charge of the preceding Reign, for having concluded a Peace with the GREATEST ENEMY of Ruſſia. Thoſe Terms ſeem to announce a new Change in the political Syſtem of Europe, and conſequently freſh Troubles.

The Army under General Romanzow in Mecklenburgh, it is ſaid, has already taken the Oaths to the new Sovereign of Ruſſia.

Hague, July 29. We have juſt received the News of an Action in Germany, between a Part of the Allied Army, and the Corps commanded by Prince Xavier of Saxony; the Particulars of which are given us in the following Letter.

Letter from the Head-Quarters of Duke Ferdinand of Brunſwick, at Nieder-Worſchitz, July 25.

" His Serene Highneſs Duke Ferdinand having reſolved to attack the Corps under the Command of Prince Xavier at Lutternberg, compoſed of the Saxon Troops, and of 13 French ſquadrons; General Gilſae was charged with the Execution thereof, and for that Purpoſe, to paſs the Fulda near Spell with his Detachment, conſiſting of Eight battalions; while General Bock, with Eight Squadrons, paſſed it at Spiegelmuhl, and General Zaſtrow at Willemſhauſen.

" General Walchauſen poſted Colonel Bleſſe at Bonnafort, to cover the left of the Attack, and to bridle the Garriſon of Munden, while with Colonel Schlieben, who had been on the ſide of Gottingen, and who was at the ſame Time to paſs the Werra at Heidemunden, he was to endeavour to take the Enemy on the back.

" All this was executed with the greateſt Bravery. The Attack was made the 23*d, at four in the Morning. Our Grenadiers on the Left began it, by paſſing the Fulda in Face of the Enemy, and in the midſt of a hot Fire from their Cannon and Muſketry. The reſt of the Infantry followed their Example, though they had the water almoſt up to their Chins. Gen. Gilſae immediately occupied the Wood which the Enemies had on the Right, which obliged them to change their Poſition a little, to cover their Flank, and to divide their Attention.*

" The Affair was diſputed briſkly a long Time; but now our Troops beginning to gain Ground, and ſome Squadrons of Schlieben's Corps, who had paſſed the Werra at Herdemunde, arriving on the Back of the Enemy, and having vigorouſly charged and overthrown all the French Squadrons, the Saxons fearing to be cut off from Caſſel, gained with Celerity the Rout to that City; but ſome Battalions being thrown into the Redoubts which they had erected on the Heights of Lutternberg, were made Priſoners; the reſt ſaved themſelves as well as they could, by flying towards the grand French Army.

" The Loſs of the Enemy has been very conſiderable upon the Field of Battle; beſides a great Number of Priſoners, amongſt whom are the Lieutenant-General Prince of Iſembourg, and ſeveral Officers, a whole Regiment of Cavalry, and two Regiments of Grenadiers, they have alſo abandoned to us Thirteen Pieces of Cannon, and Three Standards.

" The Count de Stainville, who commanded a Corps of between 8 and 10,000 Men in the famous intrenched Camp upon the Kratzenberg near Caſſel, ſeeing, probably, the Rout of the Saxons, marched out to ſupport the Corps of Prince Xavier, and to cover his Retreat.

" Prince Frederick of Brunſwick, who had been poſted to obſerve Stainville, and to give him at the ſame Time ſome diſturbance, perceiving him move off, entered his Entrenchments, occupied them, and maintained his Ground there; ſo that M. de Stainville has been obliged to throw himſelf into Caſſel.

" Such is the true Detail of this memorable Action, wherein our loſs has been inconſiderable, notwithſtanding all the Obſtacles we had to ſurmount to come at the Enemy. All the Troops fought in admirable Order, and with an Ardour greatly expreſſive of their Emulation to merit, on all Occaſions, the Eſteem and Approbation of their illuſtrious Chief."

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

Peterſburgh, July 10. Yeſterday her Imperial Majeſty the Empreſs of Ruſſia, was proclaimed Sole and Reigning Empreſs, and Sovereign of this Empire, by the Name of Catherine the Second, and immediately thereupon, the ſeveral Orders eccleſiaſtical, civil, and military, took the Oaths of Fidelity to her Imperial Majeſty, and to her Son the Great Duke Paul, as her lawful Heir.

Breſlau, July 14. The laſt Accounts from the Upper Sileſia ſay, that the Duke of Bevern was near Troppau, General Verner at Fulneck, and General Beck at Bohre, between Hoff and Sternberg, ſtill keeping open his Communication with the County of Glatz.

Nothing has happened worth writing, between the two Armies in the Neighbourhood of Schweidnitz.

July 23. On the 21ſt, in the Morning, the King of Pruſſia attacked the Right of Marſhal Daun's Army, poſted upon the Heights near the Village of Buckerſdorff, which were carried by the Pruſſians. An Attack was then ordered to be made upon the Villages Ludweigſdorff, and Leuthmanſdorff, from which the Auſtrians were likewiſe driven; and, by theſe Succeſſes, their Communication with Schweidnitz was entirely cut off. It was reſolved the next Day to have attacked the Poſt of Barſdorff, towards the Left of Marſhal Daun's Army, near Tanhauſen, where the Head-Quarter was; but, by Accounts received laſt Night, Marſhal Daun was retired, with part of his Army, towards Braunau, in Bohemia; and the other part had withdrawn into the County of Glatz.

It is not yet known here, with Certainty, what Loſs may have been ſuſtained on either Side; but the Reports are, that the Pruſſians took 14 Pieces of Cannon, and upwards of 1000 Priſoners; that the Deſertion in the Auſtrian Army was very great; and that the Loſs of the Pruſſians did not exceed 300 Men.

Hague, July 27. All our Advices from the Rhine agree in the March of the Prince of Conde from Chersfeldt by Dulmen to Bockum, where he halted the 22d, intending to detach a great Part of his Troops to reinforce the other Army, and to fix his own Head-Quarters at Duſſeldorff, in order to guard the Rhine. In his March, the Light Troops and Detachments from the Hereditary Prince's Corps harraſſed him extremely, and took a great deal of his Baggage. Some of our Accounts ſay, that the Prince of Conde was actually arrived at Duſſeldorff on the 24th. The Hereditary Prince was on the 24th, encamped at Mark near Ham.

The King of Pruſſia is ſaid to be at Landſhut, and General de Wied advanced into Bohemia, towards Konigſgratz. There had been a ſmart Action at Braunau, where the Pruſſian Loſſow is ſaid to have been killed. Colonel Kleiſt of the Pruſſians, who had made an Incurſion into Bohemia on the Side of Saxony, is returned to Prince Henry's Army, the Prince of Stolberg, with the Army of the Empire, having marched forward again towards the Pruſſian Chain, commanded by Major General Belling.

July 30. Nothing is come from the Allied Army ſince Captain Cunningham went through this Place, though further Accounts are hourly expected. We are informed that the Prince of Conde's Army has paſſed the Heights of Cologne by Diviſions, directing his March towards Siegen. Sixteen Battalions have remained for the Guard of Rees, Weſel, Duſſeldorff and Cologne, with a few Squadrons.

St. James's, Auguſt 2. Captain Cunningham, who is juſt arrived, being diſpatched the 24th paſt by Prince Ferdinand to his Majeſty, brings Word, that the Day before, he had cauſed an Attack to be made, by a Detachment of the Allied Army, conſiſting of ſome Hanoverian and Heſſian Troops, under the Command of General Gilſae, upon Part of the Enemy's right Wing, compoſed chiefly of the Saxon Troops under Count de Luſace, in their intrenched Camp of Lutternburg: That the Allied Troops marched thro' the Fulda up to their Waiſts; and, after having clambered up the Mountain, took four paliſaded Redoubts, one after the other, and drove the Enemy from all their Intrenchments. That during the Action, Major General Walthauſen gained the Rear of their right Flank, charged their Cavalry, routed them, took and deſtroyed a whole Regiment of Saxon Horſe. That the Allies in this Attack had taken above 1000 Priſoners, 13 Pieces of Cannon, and Three Standards, with a Loſs, on their Part, not exceeding 200 Men.

Captain Cunningham likewiſe gives an Account, that during the ſaid Attack, Prince Frederick of Brunſwick had marched towards the Kratzberg, a very ſtrong high Ground, which covers Caſſel, and cannonaded the French Lines, where Count Stainville was encamped with about 10,000 Men; who, hearing of the Defeat of the Saxons, quitted thoſe Lines, to go to their Aſſiſtance, whereupon Prince Frederick got Poſſeſſion of them without Oppoſition.

LONDON, July 20.

The Regiſter Money on board the Hermione, taken by the Active, Capt. Sawyer, and the Favourite, Capt. Pownall, amounts to 2,276,715 Dollars, which is 512,260 l. Sterling. The Shares will be as follow:

Sir Charles Saunders - - - - - - - - -	£. 42,730
Sir Piercy Brett - - - - - - - - - -	21,365
Each Captain - - - - - - - - - -	64,032
5 Lieutenants and Maſters, each - - -	12,819
15 Lieutenants of Marines and War Officers, each	4,273
34 Petty Officers, each - - - - - - -	1,815
266 Common Men and Boys, each - - -	482

The above Account is only of the Money regiſtered in the King of Spain's Books: The private Trade on board is imagined to be about Two Thirds of the ſame Value; ſo that the Shares will be increaſed in Proportion.

July 22. Yeſterday Evening Expreſſes were diſpatched from the Admiralty to Plymouth, Portſmouth, Chatham, and the Downs, enjoining the commanding Officers to get all their Ships ready for ſailing on the ſhorteſt Notice.

A Letter in Town from an Officer in the Army of the Empire, ſays, that no leſs than 500 Men deſerted to the Pruſſians on the 1ſt and 2d of July; and that there were ſuch Murmurings among the Officers, that it was thought the Army would be ſeparated.

It is remarkable that the greateſt Damage done us by the French this War, has been with ſmall Squadrons. Thurot, with his 3 Ships, a long Time kept us in Alarm, landed in Ireland, and did great Miſchief; twice with ſmall Squadrons they have ſwept the Coaſt of Africa, ſeized great Numbers of our Ships, and thus, without Trouble or Expence of purchaſing, ſupplied themſelves with Negroes; and now, with two Ships of War, and two Frigates, they have done us incredible Damage at Newfoundland.

July 24. As the French have taken Newfoundland by Surprize (as is ſuppoſed) it is to be hoped it will be retaken immediately, and that they will not be ſuffered to keep Poſſeſſion of it all the next Winter: For if they ſhould, and Negotiations of Peace ſhould be entered into with the French, during ſuch Time, would it not afford them too much Reaſon to inſiſt upon a Fiſhery there.

It is ſuppoſed, as Lord Colvill, on board the Northumberland, with ſeveral other of his Majeſty's Ships, are at Halifax, and on that Station, the French will find it difficult to make their Retreat from Newfoundland.

It is reported, that the following Ships, viz. the Superbe, Cornwall, Bedford, Monmouth, and Shrewſbury, beſides three Frigates, are to ſail with all Diſpatch, under the Command of Admiral Durell, to oblige the French to abandon their late Conqueſts.

July 26. The Spaniards are in the utmoſt Pain for the Fate of the Havannah, and their Fleet in that Harbour. They expect an Attack will alſo be made upon their rich Settlements in the Eaſt-Indies; and that Manilla and the Havannah will both be loſt about the ſame Time. Between 20 and 30 very rich Ships are expected to be on their Paſſage from the South Seas between this Month and October next; and as they muſt paſs along the extenſive Coaſt of Brazil, their Safety is very precarious, eſpecially as the Portugueſe Ports in that part of the World will afford good Stations for Britiſh Cruizers and Privateers.

July 28. A Detachment of Brunſwick and Heſſian Hunters has taken a Number of Waggons, laden with Baggage, belonging to the French Army, under the Marſhals d'Etrees and Soubiſe; the Produce of which Capture, on being put up to Sale, amounted to 1000 Crowns each Man.

Yeſterday morning arrived at Spithead his Majeſty's Ships Neptune, Favourite and Active, with the Hermione, Prize to the two latter, from Gibraltar.

Letters from Paris, by Way of Holland, ſay, that there had been very extraordinary Rejoicings there, on Account of their taking Newfoundland.

July 31. On Wedneſday the Lords of the Admiralty ſat ſeveral extra Hours, and this Day a full Board is expected upon Buſineſs of the greateſt Importance. It is ſaid: hat Wedneſday's Buſineſs principally turned upon the Recovery of Newfoundland.

Auguſt 3. On Saturday the Hind Man of War, Martin Sloop, and Lightning Fireſhip, ſailed from the Downs, with the Ships and Tranſports bound to Oporto and Liſbon. The Fireſhip is ordered to join Sir Edward Hawke, off Cape Finiſterre.

We are informed, that Orders are certainly diſpatched to Portſmouth, &c. for the immediate aſſembling of a Fleet to ſail for Newfoundland, to recover that important Place.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, June 25.

" We are at preſent here under very intereſting Difficulties; the Barbarian Emperor of Morocco has taken it into his Head to prohibit the Exportation of all Cattle, &c. to this Place (ſo that freſh Proviſions are extremely dear, and indeed not to be had) except that the Engliſh will engage to farm the ſaid Articles, that is, to pay a Duty of 35000 Cobbs per Annum (15000 l. Sterling) and that in Advance. It is ſaid that an Emiſſary of the French has brought it about, and agreed that the Spaniards ſhall pay him a large Subſidy for a certain Number of Years.——If this be true, we ſhall ſoon, as well as the Squadron, feel the bad Effects of French Policy."

Sir Edward Hawke, with 16 Ships of the Line, and many Frigates, is cruizing off Cape Finiſterre, to watch the Ferrol Squadron, and to protect the Convoys from Belleiſle to Liſbon; while Sir Charles Saunders, with an equal Force, is cruizing off Cadiz.

They write from Sileſia, that the Pruſſians had blockaded Schweidnitz, and that the Prince de Bevern had taken ſome Magazines, and raiſed Contributions in Moravia, and had forced the Auſtrians to retreat under the Guns of Olmutz.

Some Letters from Vienna ſay, that there is no more Talk of Peace in that City, the Propoſals made by the King of Pruſſia having been rejected.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, Auguſt 1.

" We expect a fine Cavalcade from hence to London, with the Treaſure taken in the Hermione. It is thought it will take up near 60 Waggons. The Country is ſo pleaſingly alarmed, that it is expected the Roads will be crowded with Spectators. Great Preparations are making by the Officers and their Men, that are to guard the above to London."

A Letter from on board the Superbe Man of War, of 74 Guns, at Spithead, ſays, " We are now under ſailing Orders for Newfoundland, together with the Bedford, of 90 Guns, and are accordingly getting every Thing ready to ſail. We expect to be joined by four other Men of War, but have not as yet got their Names.

Private Letters from Hamburgh ſay, that the Empreſs of Ruſſia went at the Head of 5000 Men to the Emperor's Country-Seat, at Orangebaum, and demanded his Abdication of the Throne, which he was obliged to comply with.

By a Calculation, the Loſs ſuſtained by the Merchants concerned in the Newfoundland Fiſhery, by the French ſurpriſing that Iſland, amounts to 250,000 l.

Auguſt 4. Private Letters from Ruſſia ſay, that the Empreſs dreſſed in Man's Cloaths, at the Head of the Life Guards, went to Orangebaum, a Summer Palace facing Crownſtad, about 20 Miles from Peterſburgh, having an Inſtrument ready drawn up, and ſaid, Come Sir, will you ſign this, your Abdication, for the Good of me and my Son? if not, we muſt take another Method with you; which he readily complied with, and what is become of him ſince, is not known.

Some Letters ſay, that the Empreſs is only declared Regent during the Minority of her Son, who hath been veſted with the Imperial Purple: But the authentic Manifeſto given above, makes no Mention of this; the Empreſs there ſpeaks in her own Name only; and ſome Letters ſay, that the Army under General Romanzow had already taken the Oaths to her. Baron Groſſe, the Ruſſian Miniſter at the Hague, received three Couriers on the 26th; one of which he immediately diſpatched to Verſailles.

The private Accounts ſay, that the Senate at Peterſburgh were worked up by the Clergy, who were headed by the Empreſs: They ſet forth, in the moſt alarming Light, the different Changes made by the Emperor, his extravagant Sympathy for the King of Pruſſia, and his Weakneſs in giving up the Conqueſts that had coſt Ruſſia ſo much Blood. It is added, that the late Emperor is confined in a Fortreſs.

Catherine Alexiewna II. who has been created Empreſs of Ruſſia, is Conſort to the dethroned Emperor Peter III. and a Daughter of the Houſe of Anhalt Zerbſt. Some of the foreign Gazettes ſay, that ſhe is only to govern during her Son's Minority.

There is Advice, that ſince the Action of the 23d of July, the Grand French Army is falling back to Francfort.

The 11th of laſt Month, Lieut. Col. Reitzenſtein, with ſome Coſſacks, and other light Troops, came before Konigſgratz in Bohemia, and found that the Garriſon had evacuated the Place; upon which he exacted a Contribution of 2000 Ducats, and a Preſent of 150 for himſelf and his Major: But the Town not being able to raiſe ſo much, the Coſſacks began to plunder, and at Four in the Afternoon the Place was all in a Blaze: The Jeſuits College and 160 Houſes were burnt down. The Cathedral, the Biſhop's Palace, Town-Hall, and 50 Houſes eſcaped the Flames; but the Coſſacks left nothing in them.

Auguſt 5. According to Letters from Havelberg, dated the 25th ult. the Ruſſian Auxiliaries to the King of Pruſſia, have received Orders to march Home with all Expedition; the King of Pruſſia has preſented their General, Count de Czernichew, with a Gold-hilted Sword. General Romanzow has had his Command taken from him, and the Troops which were under his Orders, and were at Demmin and Anclam, on their March for Mecklenburgh, are returning Home.

There is no Country where there have been ſo many Revolutions and Depoſitions within theſe 50 Years paſt as in Ruſſia, and what is ſurprizing, they have all, or moſt of them, been effected without Bloodſhed.

Letters from Berlin, of the 24th ult. adviſe, that when the News reached that Place, of the Revolution in Ruſſia, it put the Inhabitants of that City into ſuch a Conſternation, that ſome of the beſt Families were packing up their Effects to retire to Hamburgh, 'till Count de Finkenſtein, Miniſter of State, acquainted them, that there was nothing to fear from the Alteration of the Ruſſian Government.

According to ſome Accounts, the late Emperor of Ruſſia, and his Couſin the Prince of Holſtein Gottorp, are confined in St. Peter's Caſtle, at Peterſburgh. But,

It has been ſaid at the Cocoa-Tree, and other Places at the Weſt End of the Town, that the late Emperor of Ruſſia has made his Eſcape, joined his Army in Germany, and that they had all declared in his Favour, with the utmoſt Zeal and Loyalty.

Yet ſome Advices from Peterſburgh mention, that the new Empreſs had declared the Treaty concluded between the late Emperor and the King of Pruſſia, null and void, and ſent Orders to the Commanders of the Ruſſian Troops to ſeparate from the Pruſſians, and return Home.

The French King hath declared War againſt Portugal.

It is reported, that the late Emperor of Ruſſia was ſurprized at Supper, wounded, and carried to a remote Part of his Empire. Other Accounts ſay, that his Czarian Majeſty was aſſaſſinated in the Night in the Streets, as he was going Home.

Two eminent Merchants at Topſham, near Exeter, have loſt 10,000 l. by the French taking the almoſt defenceleſs Iſland of Newfoundland.

By the Holland Mail, arrived Yeſterday, is the following Article from Liſbon, July 7, Eight Thouſand Engliſh are already arrived in this Kingdom; Two Thouſand of whom are marching to Oporto. The Province of Tras os Montes, which had ſworn Fidelity to his Catholic Majeſty, has revolted, and the Spaniards exerciſe horrible Vengeance on all the Inhabitants who fall into their Hands. They are actually beſieging Almeida, and our Forces are forming ſeveral Camps on the Side of Coimbra.

Extract of a Letter from Oporto.

" On General Crawford's Arrival, he found the People here in the greateſt Confuſion, ſhut up within their Walls, and afraid to look out for the Spaniſh Army. He enquired what Number there were of the Enemy—they had never reconnoitred them, ſo could not tell, but ſuppoſed them about 14000. Says he, it will be a Diſgrace to an Officer to be taken without ever ſtirring out of the Town, and obſerving the Number, &c. of the Enemy, and aſked who would go? But not a Portugueſe ſtepped forth. However the next Day he muſtered four Engliſh Officers, and nine Attendants, all dreſſed in Red, and went and reconnoitred the Spaniſh Army, which he found to be about 2000. They took the red Gentlemen to be the Advanced-Guard of the Engliſh Battalions that were expected, upon which they immediately decamped, and marched off in the greateſt Confuſion, never turning or halting 'till they thought themſelves ſafe out of their Reach."

Briſtol, Auguſt 7. On the 27th ult. off Cape Finiſterre, the King George Privateer, Capt. Reid, fell in with, and engaged for Half an Hour, two French Men of War, deep laden, and armed en Flute, having their lower Deck Ports caulked up. They were full of Soldiers. One had on her upper Deck, 26 Guns, and the other 22 Guns. They diſabled him much in his Rigging, killed one Man, and wounded Six, and ſheered off. They were bound to the Miſſiſippi.

BOSTON, Sept. 27.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, July 30, 1762.

" The 16th Inſtant arrived Lord Loudoun, with the Britiſh Troops, which went up the Country immediately to join the Portugueſe Army. The Spaniards have evacuated Miranda, Braganza, Moncorvo, and Cheves; and it is thought their Scheme is to enter by Almeida: However, it is our Opinion, that as they have not purſued their Conqueſts with Vigour, they are not in a Condition to make any rapid Progreſs when oppoſed; ſo flatter ourſelves their Views will be ſoon fruſtrated."

Friday laſt arrived here Capt. Groves, in 10 Days from Louiſburg, by whom we learn, that the Tranſports with the Troops, conſiſting of about 1500, including 500 of the Provincials of this Province, that were in his Majeſty's Service at Nova-Scotia, ſailed from thence for Newfoundland on the 7th Inſtant, in order to attempt the Recovery of St. John's: There was alſo on board the Tranſports a Detachment of the Train of Artillery: They had received Advice at Louiſburg of Lord Colvill's being join'd by the Antelope and Syren Men of War from Placentia, and had blocked up the French at St. John's; that upon the firſt Appearance of this Fleet before that Place, with French and Spaniſh Colours flying, they were thought by the French Admiral to be a Reinforcement from Europe, upon which he ſent out a Schooner, with his Lieutenant, and 100 Men, to aſſiſt in conducting them into the Harbour; but upon the Veſſel's being detained they ſoon perceived their Miſtake, and immediately confined all the Engliſh that were in the Place, expecting that an Attack would ſoon be made;—in which we hope they will not be diſappointed.—'Tis ſaid Lord Colvill had ſent ſeveral Veſſels to Harbour Grace, to bring off a conſiderable Number of Engliſh People there, who were ready to aſſiſt him in diſpoſſeſſing the French at St. John's.

Monday Morning, XI o'Clock, A Letter from Liſbon, of a late Date, which came to Hand this Moment, ſays, " That upwards of 5000 Spaniſh foreign Troops, have deſerted to the Engliſh and Portugueſe Armies."

Sept. 30. Tueſday arrived here Capt. Carliſle from Placentia in Newfoundland; he left that Place the 25th of this Inſtant September, and informs, that the Day before he ſailed, an Expreſs Sloop arrived there from Lord Colvill, for 2 Officers and 70 Marines that had been before landed from the Antelope: The ſaid Expreſs informed, that they left Lord Colvill on the 11th Inſtant, off St. John's, in which Harbour the French Ships ſtill were; that no Ships had then joined him from England: The Expreſs further added, that about two Hours after they left Lord Colvill they met with the Tranſports having on board Col. Amherſt, with the Troops under his Command from Halifax and Louiſburg: They had been 4 Days from the laſt mentioned Place: They had the Wind upon the Beam, and no doubt joined the Men of War in leſs than two Hours.

NEW-YORK, October 4.

Wedneſday arrived the Weaſel Sloop of War, in ſeven Weeks from Falmouth, with Diſpatches for General Amherſt, in Conſequence of the Accounts received by the Government, of the taking of St. John's by the French.

Tueſday laſt a Sloop from Cape-Francois, of and for St. Euſtatia, was ſent in here by the Privateer Brig Mars, late Capt. M'Gillicuddy.

Yeſterday Morning was ſent in here by the Privateer Schooner Flying-Harlequin, James Wright, Commander, a French Brig, bound to Old France from St. Mark's. Her Cargo Sugar, and ſome Indigo.

Captain Miller, from the Havannah, informs, that a Spaniard was apprehended ſpiking up ſome Guns on a ſmall Battery there; and that two others were taken up for murdering a Serjeant of the Royal American Regiment, who were to be executed the Day Capt. Miller ſailed.

PHILADELPHIA, October 7.

By his Majeſty's Ship Cygnet, Captain Ames, arrived at New-York, and ſeveral Merchantmen arrived here, from the Havannah, we learn, That four Companies of the Royals, the 15th and 48th Regiments, the Third Battalion of Royal Americans, with all the Provincials, were ſoon to embark for theſe Parts: That the Spaniſh Soldiers and Sailors, made Priſoners at the Havannah, had ſailed for Spain: That two Ships of the Line, and a Frigate, had alſo ſailed for Halifax, to join Lord Colvill: That the Spaniſh Inhabitants had found Means to convey off a great Part of their Gold, and other valuable Effects: That the Engliſh had loſt no Perſon of Diſtinction, though the Men, in general, ſtill continued to be very ſickly, and a great many had died: And that a Brig, from La Vera Cruz, thought to be very rich, not knowing the Place was taken, had gone in, with her Colours flying, and was ſecured.——The Articles of Capitulation are not come to Hand; but we underſtand, that by them Private Property is ſecured, the Profeſſion of the Roman Catholic Religion permitted, and the Garriſon marched out with all the Honours of War, and was tranſported to Spain at our Expence.

Captain Cochran, in the Privateer Brig Charles-Town (belonging to Charles-Town, in South-Carolina) of 14 Six-pounders, and 100 Men, was taken, on the Firſt of Auguſt, in Lat. 23. by two French Men of War, of 74 and 32 Guns, and carried to Cape Francois. Theſe Ships of War were on their Return there, from convoying a Fleet of French Merchantmen clear of the Keys.

The Privateer Brig New Grace, Capt. Taylor, of this Port, and the Speedwell, Captain Kemp, of Providence, have taken, and carried in there, a large French Frigate, from the Cape, loaded with Sugar and Indico, ſuppoſed to be the richeſt Prize taken in theſe Seas this War.

A Prize Sloop, mentioned in our laſt, to be taken by the Hero Privateer, of this Port, is arrived at Providence.—Several other Prizes have been likewiſe lately ſent in there, but we have not learnt what they are, or by whom taken.

ANNAPOLIS, October 14.

Thurſday laſt Mr. JONATHAN PLOWMAN, Merchant, of Baltimore-Town, was Married in Calvert County, to Miſs REBECCA ARNOLD (eldeſt Daughter to Mr. DAVID ARNOLD) an amiable and accompliſh'd young Lady, with a pretty Fortune.

Monday next an Eſpecial Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Goal Delivery, is to be held here.

Laſt Friday, Thomas Cooper was executed at the Gallows, juſt without this City, for Burglary. He behaved himſelf at the Place of Execution with Decency, but was terribly Shocked at the near Approach of the King of Terrors. He ſaid but little, only that he hoped his untimely End would be a Warning to Others, and ſpent his few Moments in Prayer. He was much perſecuted by the Impertinence of Jack Ketch, who behaved himſelf extremely ill. Cooper was an Engliſh Man, very young; but had been guilty of many Faults, of which we hope he ſincerely Repented.

☞ THIS GAZETTE [N°. 910,] compleats the Year with our good Cuſtomers; and Now —— we ſhall be much obliged, if all who are in Arrears (for more than a Year) will ſeriouſly conſider the great Expence we are neceſſarily put to in carrying on our Buſineſs, and pay off their Scores to this Date.
